KIIF'S LATEST WORK AT A GLANCE

Interventions – Research – Education – Archives

A Women's History Archive – CLIO for Gender

Visit the archive!

KIIF has participated in the creation of an open online archive on the history of Cypriot women during the British era (1878-1960). The project was implemented by the Research Institute PROMITHEAS, in collaboration with KIIF and the University of Cyprus. The project was funded by the Cyprus Research and Innovation Foundation. Additionally, we have created an original short video on the history of women's vote in Cyprus!

The G.EDU Educational Platform – Education of teenage boys on gender and equality

Visit the G.EDU Platform!

KIIF, in collaboration with the Centre for Social Innovation \(CSI\), the Conexus Association from Spain and the Global Alliance for LGBT Education \(GALE\) from the Netherlands, have created an online platform with educational material and lesson plans on gender and equality issues. The material was developed to be used by educators /trainers and instructors/facilitators. It targets the educational needs of adolescents, especially boys, aged 15-17 years old. It can also be used for mixed-gender groups. The platform includes a Facilitator's Guide and Curriculum as well as an online interactive Workbook for Participants where participants and students can login and find the activities/material they will need during the implementation of the courses. The project was funded by the European Program ERASMUS+.

Research – The Consequences of the Pandemic to the Young Immigrant Women Living in Cyprus

[Read the research
report here!](#)

KIIF has implemented the research project "The Consequences of the Pandemic to Young Immigrant Women: Experiences, Thoughts and Proposals". The project was funded by the Youth Board of Cyprus, under the program "ReCOVer20". The aim of the project was to examine the experiences and needs of young immigrant women living in Cyprus in regard to the pandemic and its consequences.

Public Dialogue – The Youth for Gender Equality in the Family: The Importance of the State and the Social Institutions

Read here the policy recommendations as formulated by the young participants!

KIIF in cooperation with the Cyprus Family Planning Association \(KSOP\) implemented the structured dialogue project "Young people for gender equality in the family: The importance of the state and social institutions" which was funded by the European Program ERASMUS+. The project aimed at promoting dialogue, and educating and empowering the participants to co-develop policy recommendations regarding gender equality in the family. At the end of the project, a series of meetings between representatives of the youth group with stakeholders and officials were held. There, the participants distributed the project booklet which summarized the results of the research and the workshops. The booklet concludes with a list of policy recommendations formulated by the youth group.

HERstory for peace – Women's Workshops in Cyprus and Ireland

Click here to register or to learn more about the project!

KIIF, in cooperation with the Herstory Foundation of Ireland and with the funding of ERASMUS+, is organizing a series of experiential workshops and meetings in Cyprus and Ireland. The meetings are open to women of all ages from all communities of Cyprus. The aim of the workshops-meetings is to empower women in being active agents of both peace building and gender equality in Cyprus! The workshops-meetings will discuss the participation of women in peace -building in Cyprus from the perspective of gender equality and women's history, including issues such as: the role of women in negotiation processes, the history of inter-communal conflicts, peace, gender inequality, women's liberation, etc.
